

re : Stabbing incident at the Premises of Karkala Police Station (Mangalore-1)

Smt. ADDY SALDHANA.— Madam, I call the attention of the Chief Minister to the stabbing incident at the premises of the Karkala Police Station on 11. 7. 1973.

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA (Minister for Public Works and Electricity) on behalf of the Chief Minister, I wish to make the following statement in response to the Calling Notice of the Hon. Member Smt. Addy Saldhana.

A Case in Crime No. 118/73 under Section 326 I. P. C. was registered at Karkala Police Station on 11th July 1973. The Section was thereafter altered to 120(B) I. P. C. to Commit offence under Section 302 and 307 I. P. C. during the course of the investigation of this case, ten persons whose names are furnished below were arrested and remanded to judicial custody.

- 1) Shri Umesha Poojary
- 2) „ Harry Pareary
- 3) „ Joseph D'Souza
- 4) „ Yogesha
- 5) „ Sadashiva
- 6) „ Narayana Moili
- 7) „ Prabhakara Moili
- 8) „ Sudhakara Moili
- 9) „ Hussen Saheb
- 10) „ Prabhakara Shetty

On 28th August 1973, a charge sheet has been placed in the Court of the Magistrate at Karkala against the 10 accused persons mentioned above and also against four other persons who were shown as absconding. The names of the four other persons are as follows :—

- 1) Shri Chandraya Poojary
- 2) „ Bhaskara Shetty
- 3) „ Driver Vittal
- 4) „ Timothy D'Souza

The charge against the 14 accused persons is that they conspired to commit the murder of one Sadananda Kamath and in pursuance of it one Umesh Poojary Stabbed him with the dagger in the stomach. The timely intervention of the Police Constable is reported to have prevented the assailant from causing any further injuries.

Smt. ADDY SALDHANA.—Is it not a fact that an attempt was made to murder Shri Sadananda Kamath and that he was stabbed in broad day light in the premises of the police station at Karkala and is it not a fact that no charge sheet was filed against the culprits?

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—As I have already said, the offence is booked under Section 302 I. P. C. which means that it is a charge of murder.

Smt. ADDY SALDHANA.—Is it not a fact that one Sri Satischandra Hegde, an arrack contractor was present before and after the stabbing incident at the police station and will the Government take stern action against the gangsters in this area?

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—It is not wisdom to disclose any facts as the court is seized of the matter and it is sub judice.
